This recipe is best prepared in non-humid climates.

Clean & Sanitize your work area and all of your packaging materials. It is suggested that you wear gloves, protective clothing, and a hair net while preparing this recipe.

Step 1: Place witch hazel in a spray bottle. Set aside.

Step 2: Get out 2 bowls for mixing; 1 for dry ingredients, and 1 for wet ingredients.

Step 3: In your first bowl weigh out and mix the following dry ingredients: citric acid, baking soda, bentonite clay, and lavender flower powder.

Step 4: Now, in your wet ingredient bowl, weigh out and mix the castor oil, olive oil, lavender sage fragrance oil, and Kelly Green fun soap colorant.

Step 5: Next, slowly add the wet ingredients bowl to the dry ingredients bowl. Mix well.

Step 6: Once the mixture is well blended, slowly spray it with witch hazel. Then, mix again and continue spritzing with witch hazel until the mixture feels like crumbly dough in your hands. Please be very careful not to spray too much witch hazel into your mixture or it will activate the citric acid.

Here's How It's Done : Directions

Step 7: Next, pull one side of each of the (3) fillable ornaments. Place the ornaments on a flat surface. In each one place one (or two if they are smaller) whole rose bud(s) centered in the opening. Then, sprinkle lavender flowers (whole) around the rose(s).

Step 8: Taking some of the bath bomb mixture; carefully, press the mixture into the half of your fillable ornament that contains the herbs and press firmly.

Step 9: Then, fill the other half of the ornament.

Step 10: Spritz both halves of the ornaments, then attach ornament halves together.

Step 11: Allow bath bombs to set up, then release them slowly from the mold.

Your lavender sage bath bombs are now ready to use.
